Welland Rose Festival Inc. Children's Fishing Derby

Children's Fishing Derby will begin at 8:00 am SHARP- registration starts at 7:00 am at the International Flatwater Centre on June 16th, 2019.

The derby is open to children fifteen (15) years of age and younger. Each child is only eligible to win in their age category. Age categories are 6 & under, 7-11 and 12-15. A pail is required to keep fish that have been caught.

1. All fish must be returned to the water once the judges have counted the fish. The judging is only on the number of fishes caught, not the size, weight, etc.
2. Each fish must be caught with a hook, through the mouth. There will be no snagging or netting.
3. This is a children's Fishing Derby and ONLY the children will fish, NOT THE ADULT. Small children may be assisted with casting only. Each participant must use their own pail for fish they catch.
4. No child may win more than one prize in the Fishing Derby.
5. In the event of a dispute, the Welland Rose Festival Fishing Derby Chair will make any and all final decisions.
6. Parents/guardians are responsible for the children they bring to Children's Fishing Derby and will supply adequate care and safety equipment for them while at this event.
7. All prizes must be accepted as awarded.
8. The derby will conclude at 11:30 am. All prizes will be awarded after the judges have concluded and made their final decisions.
9. All rules, bylaws, legislation and guidelines set out by Federal, Provincial, regional and Municipal Government must be followed.
10. All rules and guidelines set out by the Ministry of Natural Resources. will be followed at all times.
11. No eels will be accepted.
12. No person will willfully enter the water for any reason other than life saving.
13. Fishing from non-motorized craft optional.
14. Catch & Release Policy is available at the Ministry of Natural resources website.
